Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

Investment Objective: Renaissance Global Science & Technology Fund (the Fund) seeks to obtain long-term capital appreciation by investing in a diversified portfolio of global companies involved mainly in telecommunications, biotechnology, computer hardware and software, medical services, and other scientific and technology-based companies.

Investment Strategies: The Fund combines both quantitative and fundamental bottom-up research to construct a well-diversified portfolio that focuses on stocks expected to outperform the sector over future periods.

Risk

The Fund is a global equity fund that is suitable for long-term investors who can tolerate medium to high investment risk.

For the period ended August 31, 2018, the Fund's overall level of risk remains as discussed in the simplified prospectus.

Results of Operations

The Fund's portfolio advisor is CIBC Asset Management Inc. (CAMI, the Manager or Portfolio Advisor). The commentary that follows provides a summary of the results of operations for the period ended August 31, 2018. All dollar figures are expressed in thousands, unless otherwise indicated.

The Fund's net asset value increased by 100% during the period, from $30,979 as at August 31, 2017 to $62,099 as at August 31, 2018. Net sales of $18,809 and positive investment performance resulted in an overall increase in net asset value. The increase in net asset value can be attributed to the Fund's relatively strong net sales and performance during the period.

Class A units of the Fund posted a return of 32.5% for the period. The Fund's primary benchmark, the NASDAQ 100 Total Return Index (the benchmark), returned 34.3% for the same period. The Fund's return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, unlike the benchmark's return. See Past Performance for the returns of other classes of units offered by the Fund.

Despite the solid performance of global equity markets over the period, volatility increased in the last seven months. Improving economic growth, robust corporate earnings and the lingering impact of low interest rates allowed markets to reach new highs at the end of January. In early February, however, investors became concerned that central banks' accommodative monetary policies were coming to an end. Market sentiment shifted from a focus on economic growth to concerns about inflation, and February's global equity market decline reflected these concerns.

Led by a strong U.S. equity market, global equities again rebounded after February as core earnings remained strong. However, while the U.S. Federal Reserve Board and European Central Bank shifted their monetary policies to reflect stronger economic growth, Japan maintained its accommodative stance.

Most equity markets struggled with escalating trade issues. Investors became increasingly concerned about the impact of tariffs on inflation, business and consumer confidence, and global supply chains. This added to some of the economic challenges China encountered during the year. A stronger U.S. dollar and rising interest rates presented significant challenges for emerging markets in general, particularly Venezuela and Turkey.

The information technology sector performed well, continuing to outperform other sectors. Revenue and earnings growth accelerated, driven by increased investment by enterprises in technology, consumer demand for technology advancements and U.S. tax cuts. Strong long-term technology trends also benefited the sector's performance, including the increased attraction of e-sports.

Stock selection was a significant contributor to the Fund's performance. Individual contributors to performance included significantly overweight allocations to Amazon.com Inc., MasterCard Inc., Visa Inc., NVIDIA Corp. and Adobe Systems Inc. MasterCard and Visa contributed as a result of strong revenue and earnings growth driven by positive global growth and the ongoing transition to digital payments. Amazon was a significant contributor as its cloud and e-commerce businesses expanded. NVIDIA also significantly contributed to performance, as the company benefited from the adoption of its chips for artificial intelligence use cases. Adobe moderately contributed to performance after it announced an increase to its forecast for the fiscal year.

Individual detractors from performance included significant overweight allocations to Tencent Holdings Ltd., Broadcom Ltd. and Facebook Inc., and a significant underweight allocation to Apple Inc. Tencent Holdings detracted significantly as it was negatively impacted by a slowdown in game approvals in China. Facebook detracted as the company faced increasing regulatory scrutiny and data privacy issues that negatively impacted its stock price. Apple also detracted significantly as its share price rose after the company instituted a significant share buyback program. A holding in Broadcom moderately detracted from performance as a result of a significant change in strategy by its management, which was not well received by the market.

The Portfolio Advisor added a new holding in Splunk Inc. to the Fund. The Portfolio Advisor believes the company is well positioned to benefit from the increased use of its platform across multiple industries to improve the use of machine data. Take-Two Interactive Software Inc. was added ahead of the release of its highly anticipated new AAA game. ServiceNow Inc. was added to the Fund for its accelerating penetration into markets as a result of its leading workflow engine.

The Portfolio Advisor increased the Fund's holding in Microsoft Corp. for its exposure to the shift to cloud computing and the rise of e-gaming. The holding in Visa was increased as the Portfolio Advisor believes it is well positioned to benefit from the continued increase of digital payments.

The Fund's holding in Broadcom was eliminated as its strategy change was not well communicated by its management team. The Portfolio Advisor exited the Fund's holdings in Activision Blizzard Inc. and Align Technology Inc. as they reached full valuation. Holdings in Apple and Thermo Fisher Scientific Inc. were trimmed in order to fund new investment opportunities.

Recent Developments

There were no recent events or activities that had a material impact on the Fund.

Related Party Transactions

CIBC and its affiliates have the following roles and responsibilities with respect to the Fund, and receive the fees described below in connection with their roles and responsibilities.

Manager, Trustee, and Portfolio Advisor of the Fund

CAMI, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CIBC, is the Fund's Manager, Trustee, and Portfolio Advisor. CAMI receives management fees with respect to the Fund's day-to-day business and operations, calculated based on the net asset value of each respective class of units of the Fund as described in Management Fees. As Trustee, CAMI holds title to the Fund's property (cash and securities) on behalf of its unitholders. As Portfolio Advisor, CAMI provides, or arranges to provide, investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund. CAMI also compensates dealers in connection with their marketing activities regarding the Fund. From time to time, CAMI may invest in units of the Fund.

Distributor

Dealers and other firms sell units of the Fund to investors. These dealers and other firms include CAMI's related dealers such as the CIBC Investor's Edge discount brokerage division of CIBC Investor Services Inc. (CIBC ISI), the CIBC Imperial Service division of CIBC ISI, and the CIBC Wood Gundy division of CIBC World Markets Inc. (CIBC WM). CIBC ISI and CIBC WM are wholly-owned subsidiaries of CIBC.

CAMI may pay sales commissions and trailing commissions to these dealers and firms in connection with the sale of units of the Fund. These dealers and other firms may pay a portion of these sales commissions and trailing commissions to their advisors who sell units of the Fund to investors.

Brokerage Arrangements and Soft Dollars

The Portfolio Advisor makes decisions, including the selection of markets and dealers and the negotiation of commissions, with respect to the purchase and sale of portfolio securities, certain derivative products and the execution of portfolio transactions. Brokerage business may be allocated by the Portfolio Advisor to CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., each a subsidiary of CIBC. CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp. may also earn spreads on the sale of fixed income securities, other securities, and certain derivative products to the Fund. A spread is the difference between the bid and ask prices for a security in the applicable marketplace, with respect to the execution of portfolio transactions. The spread will differ based upon various factors such as the nature and liquidity of the security.

Dealers, including CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., may furnish goods and services, other than order execution, when CAMI processes trades through them (referred to in the industry as "soft-dollar" arrangements). These goods and services are paid for with a portion of brokerage commissions and assist CAMI with investment decision-making services for the Fund or relate directly to the execution of portfolio transactions on behalf of the Fund.

The fees and spreads for services of the Custodian directly related to the execution of portfolio transactions by the Fund are paid by CAMI and/or dealer(s) directed by CAMI, up to the amount of the credits generated under soft dollar arrangements from trading on behalf of the Fund during that month.

In addition, the Manager may enter into commission recapture arrangements with certain dealers with respect to the Fund. Any commission recaptured will be paid to the Fund.

During the period, the Fund paid brokerage commissions and other fees of $6,693 to CIBC WM; the Fund did not pay any brokerage commissions and fees to CIBC World Markets Corp. Spreads associated with fixed income and other securities are not ascertainable and, for that reason, cannot be included when determining these amounts.

Fund Transactions

The Fund may enter into one or more of the following transactions (the Related Party Transactions) in reliance on the standing instructions issued by the Independent Review Committee (IRC):

- invest in or hold equity securities of CIBC or issuers related to a portfolio sub-advisor;
- invest in or hold non-exchange-traded debt securities of CIBC or an issuer related to CIBC in a primary offering and in the secondary market;
- make an investment in the securities of an issuer for which CIBC WM, CIBC World Markets Corp., or any affiliate of CIBC (a Related Dealer) acts as an underwriter during the offering of the securities at any time during the 60-day period following the completion of the offering of such securities (in the case of a "private placement" offering, in accordance with the exemptive relief order granted by the Canadian securities regulatory authorities and in accordance with the policies and procedures relating to such investment);
- purchase equity or debt securities from or sell them to a Related Dealer, where it is acting as principal;
- undertake currency and currency derivative transactions where a Related Dealer is the counterparty; and
- purchase securities from or sell securities to another investment fund or a managed account managed by the Manager or an affiliate of the Manager.

At least annually, the IRC reviews the Related Party Transactions for which they have issued standing instructions. The IRC is required to advise the Canadian securities regulatory authorities, after a matter has been referred to or reported to it by the Manager, if it determines that an investment decision was not made in accordance with conditions imposed by securities legislation or the IRC in any Related Party Transactions requiring its approval.

Custodian

CIBC Mellon Trust Company is the custodian of the Fund (the Custodian). The Custodian holds all cash and securities for the Fund and ensures that those assets are kept separate from any other cash or securities that the custodian might be holding. The Custodian also provides other services to the Fund including record-keeping and processing of foreign exchange transactions. The fees and spreads for services of the Custodian directly related to the execution of portfolio transactions by the Fund are paid by CAMI and/or dealer(s) directed by CAMI, up to the amount of the credits generated under soft dollar arrangements from trading on behalf of the Fund during that month. All other fees and spreads for the services of the Custodian are paid by the Manager and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis. CIBC owns a 50% interest in the Custodian.

Service Provider

CIBC Mellon Global Securities Services Company (CIBC GSS) provides certain services to the Fund, including securities lending, fund accounting and reporting, and portfolio valuation. Such servicing fees are paid by the Manager and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis. CIBC indirectly owns a 50% interest in CIBC GSS.

¹ This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements. The Fund adopted IFRS on September 1, 2014. Previously, the Fund prepared its financial statements in accordance with Canadian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) as defined in Part V of the CPA Canada Handbook. Under Canadian GAAP, the Fund measured fair values of its investments in accordance with CICA Handbook Section 3855 which required the use of bid prices for long positions and ask prices for short positions. As such, the net assets per unit figure presented in the financial statements may differ from the net asset value calculated for fund pricing purposes. An explanation of these differences can be found in the notes to the financial statements issued prior to September 1, 2014. Upon adoption of IFRS, the Fund measures the fair value of its investments by using the close market prices, where the close market price falls within the bid-ask spread. As such, the Fund's accounting policies for measuring the fair value of investments in the financial statements are consistent with those used in measuring the net asset value for transactions with unitholders. Accordingly, the opening net asset figure as at September 1, 2013 was restated to reflect accounting policy adjustments made in accordance with IFRS.

³ Distributions were paid in cash, reinvested in additional units of the Fund, or both.

⁴ This information is presented as at August 31 of the period(s) shown.

⁶ The decision to waive and/or absorb management fees and operating expenses is at the discretion of the Manager. The practice of waiving and/or absorbing management fees and operating expenses may continue indefinitely or may be terminated at any time without notice to unitholders.

⁸ The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the portfolio advisor and/or portfolio sub-advisor manages the portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to a fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by a fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

Management Fees

The Fund pays CAMI an annual management fee to cover the costs of managing the Fund. Management fees are based on the Fund's net asset value and are calculated daily and paid monthly. Management fees are paid to CAMI in consideration for providing, or arranging for the provision of, management, distribution, and portfolio advisory services. Advertising and promotional expenses, office overhead expenses related to the Manager's activities, and trailing commissions are paid by CAMI out of the management fees received from the Fund. The Fund is required to pay applicable taxes on the management fees paid to CAMI. Refer to the simplified prospectus for the annual management fee rate for each class of units.

For Class O units, the management fee is negotiated with and paid by, or as directed by, unitholders or dealers and discretionary managers on behalf of unitholders. Such Class O management fee will not exceed the Class F unit management fee rate.

The following table shows a breakdown of the services received in consideration of the management fees, as a percentage of the management fees collected from the Fund for the period ended August 31, 2018. These amounts do not include waived fees or absorbed expenses.

Past Performance

The performance data provided assumes reinvestment of distributions only and does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, or other optional charges payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how a fund will perform in the future.

The Fund's returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses, and the difference in returns between classes of units is primarily due to differences in the management expense ratio. See Financial Highlights for the management expense ratio.

Year-by-Year Returns

These bar charts show the annual performance of each class of units of the Fund for each of the periods shown, and illustrate how the performance has changed from period to period. These bar charts show, in percentage terms, how an investment made on September 1 would have increased or decreased by August 31, unless otherwise indicated.

A note on forward-looking statements

The management report of fund performance may contain forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, that depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or that include words such as “expects”, “anticipates”, “intends”, “plans”, “believes”, “estimates”, or other similar wording. In addition, any statements that may be made concerning future performance, strategies, or prospects and possible future actions taken by the fund, are also forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors that may cause the actual results and achievements of the fund to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to: general economic, market, and business conditions; fluctuations in securities prices, interest rates, and foreign currency exchange rates; changes in government regulations; and catastrophic events.

The above list of important factors that may affect future results is not exhaustive. Before making any investment decisions, we encourage you to consider these and other factors carefully. CIBC Asset Management Inc. does not undertake, and specifically disclaims, any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments, or otherwise prior to the release of the next management report of fund performance.
