Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

Investment Objective: Renaissance Global Value Fund (the Fund) seeks to achieve long-term growth through capital appreciation, consistent with preservation of capital, through investment primarily in a diversified portfolio of common shares of larger, more established companies in developed markets around the world. The Fund may also invest in larger, more established companies in less-developed markets around the world, and may invest in companies that are suppliers or clients of larger companies.

Investment Strategies: The Fund uses a bottom-up approach with a focus on value parameters such as well-capitalized, proven earnings generation capability, global diversification of revenue stream, and modest price/earnings and price/book value levels.

Risk

The Fund is a global equity fund that is suitable for investors who can tolerate medium investment risk.

During the period ended August 31, 2011, the Fund's risk classification was changed from 'average' to 'medium' to reflect The Investment Funds Institute of Canada's revised risk categories. Although the risk classification changed, the overall level of risk remains as discussed in the Fund's simplified prospectus.

Results of Operations

The portfolio sub-advisor of the Fund is NWQ Investment Management Company, LLC (the sub-advisor). The commentary that follows reflects the views of the sub-advisor and provides a summary of the results of operations for the period ended August 31, 2011. All dollar figures are expressed in thousands, unless otherwise indicated.

- The Fund's net asset value decreased by 24% during the period, from $33,791 as at August 31, 2010 to $25,723 as at August 31, 2011. Net redemptions of $8,136 and negative investment performance resulted in this overall decrease in net asset value.
- Class A units of the Fund posted a return of -2.2% for the period. The Fund's primary benchmark, the MSCI World Index (the benchmark), returned 5.5% for the same period. The Fund return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, unlike the benchmark. See Past Performance for the returns of other classes of units offered by the Fund.

- Volatility remained high during the period with global equity markets surging closer to their pre-2008 levels in April before reversing course and posting swift declines in August 2011. Economic data over the past several months has indicated a loss of momentum and a global slowdown. A powerful shift toward defensive stocks began taking place in the second quarter as markets worried that a period of low growth, or possibly a recession, might be in the near future. Defensive sectors (consumer staples, health care, and utilities) outperformed more cyclical sectors (energy, industrials, financials) as investors remained cautious.
- A majority of the Fund's sectors recorded gains with the exception of the utilities and financials sectors. The commodity related energy and materials sectors were the two largest contributors to performance. These sectors are the second- and third-largest weighted in the Fund, and benefited from overall gains in many holdings' underlying commodity price strength.
- An overweight exposure to Japanese companies was one of the largest factors for relative underperformance. Though the Japanese equity market recorded positive results, it underperformed the results of other developed countries due to declines suffered following the earthquake and subsequent tsunamis that struck the country in March 2011. Absolute declines in several Japanese companies led to negative selection effect in the consumer staples, industrials, and consumer discretionary sectors. The sub-advisor believes the Fund's Japanese names still have room to grow before fully recovering from their recent lows, with several Japanese firms having recently seen respectable appreciation.
- The Fund's exposure to nuclear related holdings such as Cameco Corp, Korea Electric Power Corp, and Areva SA also detracted from performance on both a relative and absolute basis. These holdings suffered from negative nuclear industry sentiment catalyzed by the troubles at the Japanese Fukushima Daiichi nuclear plant. The sub-advisor remains attracted to the long-term fundamentals of nuclear power related holdings and the overall industry, and believes the recent correction to be overdone because there are no real substitutes for nuclear energy technology as it pertains to large-scale clean electricity generation.

- In the midst of significant uncertainty, a mood of optimism prevailed during the first quarter of 2011, and the potential negatives were mostly ignored. Currently, the mood appears decidedly more pessimistic. The sub-advisor believes that expectations are low and fear is priced into equities at recent levels. While it is impossible to predict the exact bottom, or its timing, the sub-advisor believes that the market, in general, offers favourable risk/reward and good value for long-term investors. The approach has been to take advantage of attractive valuation and risk/reward when fear and uncertainty are already reflected in security prices.

Recent Developments

International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS)

In January 2011, the Accounting Standards Board (AcSB) amended the Introduction to Part I of the CICA Handbook – Accounting to allow investment companies, which include investment funds, to adopt IFRS for the first time no later than interim and annual financial statements relating to annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2013. Investment companies electing to defer the first time adoption may continue to apply existing Canadian generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) until the changeover to IFRS.

The Fund will defer the first time adoption and adopt IFRS beginning September 1, 2013. As at August 31, 2011, the Manager has developed a changeover plan to meet this timetable.

Related Party Transactions

Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce (CIBC) and its affiliates have the following roles and responsibilities with respect to the Fund, and receive the fees described below in connection with their roles and responsibilities.

Manager, Trustee, and Portfolio Advisor of the Fund

CIBC Asset Management Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of CIBC, is the manager, trustee, and portfolio advisor of the Fund (CAMI or the Manager). CAMI will receive management fees with respect to the day-to-day business and operations of the Fund, calculated based on the net asset value of each respective class of units of the Fund, as described in the section entitled Management Fees. As portfolio advisor, CAMI provides, or arranges to provide, investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund. CAMI will also compensate its wholesalers in connection with their marketing activities regarding the Fund. From time to time, CAMI may provide seed capital to the Fund.

Distributor

Dealers and other firms will sell the units of the Fund to investors. These dealers and other firms will include CIBC's related dealers such as the CIBC Investor's Edge discount brokerage division of CIBC Investor Services Inc. (CIBC ISI), the CIBC Imperial Service division of CIBC ISI, and the CIBC Wood Gundy division of CIBC World Markets Inc. (CIBC WM). CIBC ISI and CIBC WM are wholly-owned subsidiaries of CIBC.

CAMI may pay sales commissions and trailing commissions to these dealers and firms in connection with the sale of units of the Fund. These dealers and other firms may pay a portion of these sales commissions and trailing commissions to their advisors who sell units of the Fund to investors.

Brokerage Arrangements and Soft Dollars

Portfolio sub-advisors make decisions, including the selection of markets and dealers and the negotiation of commissions, with respect to the purchase and sale of portfolio securities, certain derivative products (including futures) and the execution of portfolio transactions. Brokerage business may be allocated by portfolio sub-advisors to CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., each a subsidiary of CIBC. CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp. may also earn spreads on the sale of fixed income, other securities and certain derivative products (including forwards) to the Fund. A spread is the difference between the bid and ask prices for a security in the applicable marketplace, with respect to the execution of portfolio transactions. The spread will differ based upon various factors such as the nature and liquidity of the security.

Dealers, including CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., may also furnish goods and services, other than order execution, to portfolio sub-advisors that process trades through them (referred to in the industry as "soft-dollar" arrangements). These goods and services are paid for with a portion of brokerage commissions and assist portfolio sub-advisors with investment decision making services to the Fund or relate directly to executing portfolio transactions on behalf of the Fund. As per the terms of the portfolio sub-advisory agreements, such soft dollar arrangements are in compliance with applicable laws. In addition, CAMI may enter into commission recapture arrangements with certain dealers with respect to the Fund. Any commission recaptured will be paid to the Fund.

During the period, the Fund paid brokerage commissions and other fees of $350 to CIBC World Markets Corp; the Fund did not pay any brokerage commissions or other fees to CIBC WM. Spreads associated with fixed income and other securities are not ascertainable and, for that reason, cannot be included when determining these amounts.

Fund Transactions

The Fund may enter into one or more of the following transactions in reliance on the standing instructions rendered by the Independent Review Committee (IRC):

- trade in securities of CIBC;
- invest in the securities of issuers for which CIBC WM, CIBC World Markets Corp. or another related party acts as an underwriter during the distribution of such securities and the 60-day period following the conclusion of such distribution of the underwritten securities to the public;
- purchase of securities from or sell securities to CIBC WM, CIBC World Markets or another related party, where it is acting as principal; and

- purchases or sales of securities of an issuer from or to another investment fund managed by the Manager or an affiliate of the Manager.

The relevant standing instructions require that the transactions (i) be made free from any influence of an entity related to the Manager or any sub-advisor and without taking into account any consideration relevant to an entity related to the Manager or any sub-advisor, (ii) represent the business judgment of the Manager and such sub-advisor, uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interests of the Fund, (iii) be conducted in accordance with the Manager's policies and procedures, and (iv) achieve a fair and reasonable result for the Fund. The Manager is required to report a material breach in respect of the standing instructions to the IRC.

Custodian

The custodian holds all cash and securities for the Fund and ensures that those assets are kept separate from any other cash or securities that the custodian may be holding. CIBC Mellon Trust Company is the custodian of the Fund (the Custodian). The fees for the services of the Custodian are paid by the Manager and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis.

Service Provider

CIBC Mellon Global Securities Services Company (CIBC GSS) provides certain services to the Fund, including securities lending, fund accounting and reporting, and portfolio valuation. Such servicing fees are paid by the Manager, and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis. CIBC indirectly owns a 50% interest in CIBC GSS.

⁴ This information is presented as at August 31 of the period(s) shown.

⁵ Management expense ratio is based on the total expenses of the fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs), incurred by or allocated to a class of units for the period shown, expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value of that class during the period.

⁶ The decision to waive and/or absorb management fees and operating expenses is at the discretion of the Manager. The practice of waiving and/or absorbing management fees and operating expenses may continue indefinitely or may be terminated at any time without notice to unitholders.

⁸ The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the portfolio sub-advisor manages the portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to a fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by a fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

Management Fees

The Fund, either directly or indirectly, pays one or more annual management fees to CAMI in consideration for the provision of, or arranging for the provision of, management, distribution, and portfolio advisory services. These fees are calculated as a percentage of the Fund's class level net asset value and are calculated and credited daily, and paid monthly. The Fund is required to pay all applicable taxes on the management fees.

The following table shows a breakdown of the services received in consideration of the management fees, as a percentage of the management fees collected from the Fund for the period ended August 31, 2011. These amounts do not include waived fees or absorbed expenses. CAMI charges a management fee directly to, or as directed by, Class O unitholders, or dealers and discretionary managers on behalf of Class O unitholders.

Past Performance

The performance data provided assumes reinvestment of distributions only and does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, or other optional charges payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how a fund will perform in the future.

The Fund's returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses, and the difference in returns between classes is primarily due to the difference in management expense ratio. See the section entitled Financial Highlights for the management expense ratio.

Year-by-Year Returns

These bar charts show the annual performance of each class of units of the Fund for each of the periods shown, and illustrates how the performance has changed from period to period. These bar charts show, in percentage terms, how an investment made on September 1 would have increased or decreased by August 31, unless otherwise indicated.

Class A Units

^aReturn is for the period from January 1 to December 31 of the year shown.

^b2006 return is for the period from January 1, 2006 to August 31, 2006.
