Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

Investment Objective: Renaissance Global Value Fund (the Fund) seeks to achieve long-term growth through capital appreciation, consistent with preservation of capital, through investment primarily in a diversified portfolio of common shares of larger, more established companies in developed markets around the world. The Fund may also invest in larger, more established companies in less-developed markets around the world, and may invest in companies that are suppliers or clients of larger companies.

Investment Strategies: The Fund uses a bottom-up approach with a focus on value parameters such as proven earnings generation capability and low price-to-earnings and price-to-book value levels.

Risk

The Fund is a global equity fund that is suitable for long-term investors who can tolerate medium investment risk.

For the period ended August 31, 2020, the Fund's overall level of risk remains as discussed in the simplified prospectus.

Results of Operations

The Fund's portfolio sub-advisor is Pzena Investment Management, LLC (the sub-advisor). The commentary that follows provides a summary of the results of operations for the period ended August 31, 2020. All dollar figures are expressed in thousands, unless otherwise indicated.

The Fund's net asset value decreased by 20% during the period, from $33,137 as at August 31, 2019 to $26,534 as at August 31, 2020. Net redemptions of $5,332 and negative investment performance resulted in an overall decrease in net asset value.

Class A units of the Fund posted a return of -6.5% for the period. The Fund's benchmark, the MSCI World Index (the benchmark), returned 15.1% for the same period. The Fund's return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, unlike the benchmark's return. See the section Past Performance for the returns of other classes of units offered by the Fund.

Global equity markets posted relatively strong returns over the final four months of 2019, largely in response to an announced U.S.-China phase-one trade deal in December. Equity markets declined sharply in the first quarter of 2020, however, as COVID-19 spread across the globe and economic activity slowed significantly in many parts of the world.

Investors reacted to the unprecedented public health crisis, which soon became an economic crisis, by moving out of equity markets and into the perceived safety of cash and fixed income investments. Every equity market sector posted losses over the first quarter of 2020, with the energy and financials sectors declining the most.

As the COVID-19 curve began to flatten, several countries started cautiously reopening their economies, which resulted in increased investor optimism for the rest of the period. Financial market volatility remained somewhat elevated, however, in response to continued uncertainty about the impact of the pandemic on global financial markets. Significant monetary and fiscal stimulus measures introduced by governments around the world also increased optimism regarding equity markets. Growth stocks significantly outperformed value stocks in both developed and emerging markets.

Stock selection in the information technology and consumer discretionary sectors detracted from the Fund's performance, as growth stocks, as well as stocks that were well-positioned to benefit from the new "work-from-home" environment, outperformed. Stock selection in the financials sector, combined with a moderate overweight allocation to this relatively weak sector, also detracted from performance.

General Electric Co. was the largest individual detractor from performance, as the company's exposure to the downturn in air travel – through its aircraft engines division – negatively impacted the company's performance. Japanese oil exploration & production company INPEX Corp. and American oil services company National Oilwell Varco Inc. both detracted in response to weaker oil prices and fear over another sharp economic downturn.

Stock selection in the industrials sector contributed to the Fund's performance. Individual contributors to performance included Danish international shipping company A.P. Moller - Maersk A/S, which performed well in response to better-than-expected earnings. Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Co. Ltd. was another contributor to performance in response to the strength of the company's latest generation offering and its massive investment in manufacturing systems upgrades. Japanese information technology services company Fujitsu Ltd. contributed to performance as the company continued to refocus its business toward information technology software and services.

New additions to the Fund during the period included Panasonic Corp. The Japanese industrial conglomerate has a diverse range of leading franchises and the company has been focused on its core segments.

ArcelorMittal SA, the world's largest steel producer, was also added to the Fund. The sub-advisor believes this company should perform well as a result of its diversified global footprint, improved balance sheet and what the sub-advisor believes is an extremely depressed valuation. A new holding in U.S. oil services company Baker Hughes Inc. was added as the company has leading positions in a range of businesses that service the energy sector.

The sub-advisor increased the Fund's holdings in Wabtec Corp. (products and services for railroads), PVH Corp. (branded apparel firm), Lear Corp. (auto supplier) and POSCO (South Korean steelmaking company). These existing holdings were all increased based on valuation.

Holdings that were eliminated from the Fund included Walmart Inc. (U.S. retailer), Omnicom Group Inc. (advertising) and British American Tobacco PLC. Decreased holdings included Schneider Electric SA (electrical equipment), Fujitsu, Roche Holding AG (pharmaceutical manufacturer) and Isuzu Motors Ltd. (Japanese auto manufacturer), all based on valuation.

Recent Developments

The composition of the Independent Review Committee (IRC) changed during the period. Don Hunter and Merle Kriss retired effective April 26, 2020. Effective April 27, 2020, David Forster and Deborah Leckman were appointed as members of the IRC. Marcia Lewis Brown was appointed Chair effective April 1, 2020.

The international spread of COVID-19 caused a significant slowdown in the global economy and volatility in financial markets. The COVID-19 outbreak may adversely affect global markets and the performance of the Fund.

Related Party Transactions

CIBC and its affiliates have the following roles and responsibilities with respect to the Fund, and receive the fees described below in connection with their roles and responsibilities.

Manager, Trustee, and Portfolio Advisor of the Fund

CAMI a wholly-owned subsidiary of CIBC, is the Fund's Manager, Trustee, and Portfolio Advisor. As Manager, CAMI receives management fees with respect to the Fund's day-to-day business and operations, calculated based on the net asset value of each respective class of units of the Fund as described in Management Fees. As Trustee, CAMI holds title to the Fund's property (cash and securities) on behalf of its unitholders. As Portfolio Advisor, CAMI provides, or arranges to provide for, investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund. CAMI also compensates dealers in connection with their marketing activities regarding the Fund. From time to time, CAMI may invest in units of the Fund.

Distributor

Dealers and other firms sell units of the Fund to investors. These dealers and other firms include CAMI's related dealers such as the CIBC Investor's Edge discount brokerage division of CIBC Investor Services Inc. (CIBC ISI), the CIBC Imperial Service division of CIBC ISI, and the CIBC Wood Gundy division of CIBC World Markets Inc. (CIBC WM). CIBC ISI and CIBC WM are wholly-owned subsidiaries of CIBC.

CAMI may pay sales commissions and trailing commissions to these dealers and firms in connection with the sale of units of the Fund. These dealers and other firms may pay a portion of these sales commissions and trailing commissions to their advisors who sell units of the Fund to investors.

Brokerage Arrangements and Soft Dollars

CAMI generally delegates trading and execution authority to the portfolio sub-advisors and does not, in its capacity as portfolio advisor, receive any goods or services directly through soft dollar arrangements.

The Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisors make decisions, including the selection of markets and dealers and the negotiation of commissions, with respect to the purchase and sale of portfolio securities, certain derivative products and the execution of portfolio transactions. Brokerage business may be allocated by the Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisor to CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., each a subsidiary of CIBC. CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp. may also earn spreads on the sale of fixed income securities, other securities, and certain derivative products to the Fund. A spread is the difference between the bid and ask prices for a security in the applicable marketplace, with respect to the execution of portfolio transactions. The spread will differ based upon various factors such as the nature and liquidity of the security.

Dealers, including CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., may furnish goods and services, other than order execution, to the Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisors when they process trades through them (referred to in the industry as "soft-dollar" arrangements). These goods and services are paid for with a portion of the brokerage commissions and assist the Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisor with investment decision-making services for the Fund or relate directly to the execution of portfolio transactions on behalf of the Fund. As per the terms of the portfolio sub-advisory agreements, such soft dollar arrangements are in compliance with applicable laws.

In addition, the Manager may enter into commission recapture arrangements with certain dealers with respect to the Fund. Any commission recaptured will be paid to the Fund.

During the period, the Fund did not pay any brokerage commissions or other fees to CIBC WM or CIBC World Markets Corp. Spreads associated with fixed income and other securities are not ascertainable and, for that reason, cannot be included when determining these amounts.

Fund Transactions

The Fund may enter into one or more of the following transactions (the Related Party Transactions) in reliance on the standing instructions issued by the IRC:

- invest in or hold equity securities of CIBC or issuers related to a portfolio sub-advisor;
- invest in or hold non-exchange-traded debt securities of CIBC or an issuer related to CIBC, with terms-to-maturity of 365 days or more, issued in a primary offering and in the secondary market;
- make an investment in the securities of an issuer for which CIBC WM, CIBC World Markets Corp., or any affiliate of CIBC (a Related Dealer) acts as an underwriter during the offering of the securities or at any time during the 60-day period following the completion of the offering of such securities (in the case of a “private placement” offering, in accordance with the exemptive relief order granted by the Canadian securities regulatory authorities and in accordance with the policies and procedures relating to such investment);
- purchase equity and debt securities from or sell them to a Related Dealer, where it is acting as principal;
- undertake currency and currency derivative transactions where a Related Dealer is the counterparty;
- purchase securities from or sell securities to another investment fund or a managed account managed by the Manager or an affiliate of the Manager; and
- engage in in-specie transfers by receiving portfolio securities from, or delivering portfolio securities to, a managed account or another investment fund managed by the Manager or an affiliate, in respect of a purchase or redemption of units of the Fund, subject to certain conditions.

At least annually, the IRC reviews the Related Party Transactions for which they have issued standing instructions. The IRC is required to advise the Canadian securities regulatory authorities, after a matter has been referred to or reported to it by the Manager, if it determines that an investment decision was not made in accordance with conditions imposed by securities legislation or the IRC in any Related Party Transactions requiring its approval.

Custodian

CIBC Mellon Trust Company is the custodian of the Fund (the Custodian). The Custodian holds all cash and securities for the Fund and ensures that those assets are kept separate from any other cash or securities that the custodian might be holding. The Custodian also provides other services to the Fund including record-keeping and processing of foreign exchange transactions. The fees and spreads for services of the Custodian directly related to the execution of portfolio transactions by the Fund are paid by CAMI and/or dealer(s) directed by CAMI, up to the amount of the credits generated under soft dollar arrangements from trading on behalf of the Fund during that month. All other fees and spreads for the services of the Custodian are paid by the Manager and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis. CIBC owns a 50% interest in the Custodian.

Service Provider

CIBC Mellon Global Securities Services Company (CIBC GSS) provides certain services to the Fund, including securities lending, fund accounting and reporting, and portfolio valuation. Such servicing fees are paid by the Manager and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis. CIBC indirectly owns a 50% interest in CIBC GSS.

⁴ This information is presented as at August 31 of the period(s) shown.

⁶ The decision to waive and/or absorb management fees and operating expenses is at the discretion of the Manager. The practice of waiving and/or absorbing management fees and operating expenses may continue indefinitely or may be terminated at any time without notice to unitholders.

There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

Management Fees

The Fund pays CAMI an annual management fee to cover the costs of managing the Fund. Management fees are based on the Fund's net asset value and are calculated daily and paid monthly. Management fees are paid to CAMI in consideration for providing, or arranging for the provision of, management, distribution, and portfolio advisory services. Advertising and promotional expenses, office overhead expenses, trailing commissions, and the fees of the portfolio sub-advisor are paid by CAMI out of the management fees received from the Fund. The Fund is required to pay applicable taxes on the management fees paid to CAMI. Refer to the simplified prospectus for the annual management fee rate for each class of units.

For Class O units, the management fee is negotiated with and paid by, or as directed by, unitholders or dealers and discretionary managers on behalf of unitholders. Such Class O management fee will not exceed the Class F unit management fee rate.

The following table shows a breakdown of the services received in consideration of the management fees, as a percentage of the management fees collected from the Fund for the period ended August 31, 2020. These amounts do not include waived fees or absorbed expenses.

Past Performance

The performance data provided assumes reinvestment of distributions only and does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, or other optional charges payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how a fund will perform in the future.

The Fund's returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses, and the difference in returns between classes of units is primarily due to differences in the management expense ratio. See Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratio.

Year-by-Year Returns

These bar charts show the annual performance of each class of units of the Fund for each of the periods shown, and illustrate how the performance has changed from period to period. These bar charts show, in percentage terms, how an investment made on September 1 would have increased or decreased by August 31, unless otherwise indicated.

A note on forward-looking statements

The management report of fund performance may contain forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, that depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or that include words such as “expects”, “anticipates”, “intends”, “plans”, “believes”, “estimates”, or other similar wording. In addition, any statements that may be made concerning future performance, strategies, or prospects and possible future actions taken by the fund, are also forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors that may cause the actual results and achievements of the fund to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to: general economic, market, and business conditions; fluctuations in securities prices, interest rates, and foreign currency exchange rates; changes in government regulations; and catastrophic events.

The above list of important factors that may affect future results is not exhaustive. Before making any investment decisions, we encourage you to consider these and other factors carefully. CIBC Asset Management Inc. does not undertake, and specifically disclaims, any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments, or otherwise prior to the release of the next management report of fund performance.
