Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

Investment Objective: Renaissance International Equity Fund (the Fund) seeks to provide long-term capital growth through capital appreciation by investing primarily in a diversified portfolio of equity securities of foreign companies located in Europe, the Far East, and the Pacific Rim.

Investment Strategies: The Fund invests based on a bottom-up approach, identifying securities of growth companies with characteristics such as low prices relative to their long-term cash earnings potential and the potential for significant improvement in the company's business, financial strength, and sufficient liquidity. Country allocations are not explicitly set, but roll out from the basket of securities that comprise the portfolio.

Risk

The Fund is an international equity fund that is suitable for long-term investors who can tolerate medium investment risk.

For the period ended August 31, 2020, the Fund's overall level of risk remains as discussed in the simplified prospectus.

Results of Operations

The Fund's portfolio sub-advisor is Walter Scott & Partners Limited (the sub-advisor). The commentary that follows provides a summary of the results of operations for the period ended August 31, 2020. All dollar figures are expressed in thousands, unless otherwise indicated.

The Fund's net asset value increased by 65% during the period, from $556,478 as at August 31, 2019 to $917,723 as at August 31, 2020. Net sales of $251,377 and positive investment performance resulted in an overall increase in net asset value.

Class A units of the Fund posted a return of 15.4% for the period. The Fund's benchmark, the MSCI EAFE Index (the benchmark), returned 4.5% for the same period. The Fund's return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, unlike the benchmark's return. See the section Past Performance for the returns of other classes of units offered by the Fund.

During the period, the COVID-19 pandemic had a significant impact on equity market performance across sectors and geographies.

Ongoing trade discussions between the U.S. and China, which included successful completion of a phase-one trade deal, continued to affect general market sentiment, with a particular impact on Chinese stocks and companies linked to global supply chains.

In the U.K., challenges associated with the U.K.'s exit from the European Union (Brexit) were alleviated to some extent by the general election results in December.

As the spread of COVID-19 appeared to be under better control, several countries began to reopen their economies, which led to a sustained period of market optimism. Volatility continued to be high as uncertainty remained regarding the future impact of the virus and when a viable vaccine might be developed and rolled out. Central banks and governments around the globe implemented significant monetary and fiscal stimulus, including a reduction in interest rates and the initiation of bond-buying programs, to support their respective economies and markets. Growth stocks significantly outperformed value stocks in both developed and emerging markets.

The Fund's holdings in Europe (excluding the U.K.) contributed to performance. The most significant contributors in this region included ASML Holding NV, VAT Group AG and Givaudan SA. ASML delivered solid results and good order intake reflecting limited impact to date from COVID-19. The COVID-19 pandemic did not weaken the semiconductor market, as evidenced by VAT Group's robust first-half results. Givaudan posted good growth across most product segments and geographies. The Fund's Japanese holdings, particularly Daikin Industries Ltd. and Makita Corp., also contributed to performance. Daikin's operating profit was 42% ahead of consensus given better sales and cost control. Makita benefited from stay-at-home consumers looking for do-it-yourself power tools and gardening equipment.

Individual contributors to performance included non-benchmark holding Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Co. Ltd. The company benefited as end-markets experienced demand growth driven by data centre investment (cloud services), 5G investment in China (network and handsets) and, to a lesser extent, hardware related to working from home. KONE OYJ contributed to performance amid a strong recovery in China and growth in earnings and cash flow.

The Fund's holdings in the consumer discretionary sector, such as Compass Group PLC, detracted from performance. A slight overweight exposure to the energy sector detracted from performance as this was the benchmark's weakest-performing sector. A slight overweight exposure to the real estate sector also detracted from performance as the sector underperformed.

Individual detractors from performance included Compass Group as sales volumes declined sharply given that large parts of the global workforce worked from home and businesses closed amid the pandemic. Jardine Matheson Holdings Ltd. detracted from performance based on concerns about COVID-19 and the company's real estate business in Hong Kong. Galp Energia SGPS SA also detracted from performance as the sharp decline in oil prices in the first quarter of 2020 had a negative impact on the energy sector.

New holdings added to the Fund included Ascendas Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT), one of Singapore's largest REITs. The sub-advisor believes Singapore is an attractive place to locate operations and Ascendas' property portfolio is well diversified by category, tenant industry, individual tenant and individual property. Christian Hansen Holdings AS produces bacteria cultures and enzymes for the food and beverage industry, and for health and nutrition products. The company's growth slowed and its stock price declined sharply, but the sub-advisor believes growth is poised to reaccelerate.

Increased holdings included Galp Energia, reflecting the company's continued strong execution against its management's strategy. The sub-advisor believes that Galp remains well placed to withstand oil price volatility and generate sustained cash flow growth over time. Cochlear Ltd. was increased given what the sub-advisor believed were an attractive valuation and promising long-term growth outlook. Christian Hansen was increased as the stock price declined and the company announced new long-term targets of higher organic revenue growth.

Eliminated holdings included U.K. company Whitbread PLC amid weaker demand for hotel accommodations, particularly with Brexit proceedings still to be finalized. The holding in Alcon Inc., which was established following a merger with Novartis AG and not as a purchase by the sub-advisor, was also exited.

Decreased holdings included VAT Group as the stock valuation, in the sub-advisor's view, had become high in anticipation of a strong recovery in demand for the company's semiconductor products. The stock price did eventually decline but the company's outlook improved, leading the sub-advisor to subsequently increase the holding.

Recent Developments

Effective January 30, 2020, the annual management fee payable was reduced from 0.95% to 0.85% in respect of Class F units of the Fund.

The composition of the Independent Review Committee (IRC) changed during the period. Don Hunter and Merle Kriss retired effective April 26, 2020. Effective April 27, 2020, David Forster and Deborah Leckman were appointed as members of the IRC. Marcia Lewis Brown was appointed Chair effective April 1, 2020.

The international spread of COVID-19 caused a significant slowdown in the global economy and volatility in financial markets. The COVID-19 outbreak may adversely affect global markets and the performance of the Fund.

Related Party Transactions

CIBC and its affiliates have the following roles and responsibilities with respect to the Fund, and receive the fees described below in connection with their roles and responsibilities.

Manager, Trustee, and Portfolio Advisor of the Fund

CAMI, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CIBC, is the Fund's Manager, Trustee, and Portfolio Advisor. As Manager, CAMI receives management fees with respect to the Fund's day-to-day business and operations, calculated based on the net asset value of each respective class of units of the Fund as described in Management Fees. As Trustee, CAMI holds title to the Fund's property (cash and securities) on behalf of its unitholders. As Portfolio Advisor, CAMI provides, or arranges to provide for, investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund. CAMI also compensates dealers in connection with their marketing activities regarding the Fund. From time to time, CAMI may invest in units of the Fund.

Distributor

Dealers and other firms sell units of the Fund to investors. These dealers and other firms include CAMI's related dealers such as the CIBC Investor's Edge discount brokerage division of CIBC Investor Services Inc. (CIBC ISI), the CIBC Imperial Service division of CIBC ISI, and the CIBC Wood Gundy division of CIBC World Markets Inc. (CIBC WM). CIBC ISI and CIBC WM are wholly-owned subsidiaries of CIBC.

CAMI may pay sales commissions and trailing commissions to these dealers and firms in connection with the sale of units of the Fund. These dealers and other firms may pay a portion of these sales commissions and trailing commissions to their advisors who sell units of the Fund to investors.

Brokerage Arrangements and Soft Dollars

CAMI generally delegates trading and execution authority to the portfolio sub-advisors and does not, in its capacity as portfolio advisor, receive any goods or services directly through soft dollar arrangements.

The Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisors make decisions, including the selection of markets and dealers and the negotiation of commissions, with respect to the purchase and sale of portfolio securities, certain derivative products and the execution of portfolio transactions. Brokerage business may be allocated by the Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisor to CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., each a subsidiary of CIBC. CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp. may also earn spreads on the sale of fixed income securities, other securities, and certain derivative products to the Fund. A spread is the difference between the bid and ask prices for a security in the applicable marketplace, with respect to the execution of portfolio transactions. The spread will differ based upon various factors such as the nature and liquidity of the security.

Dealers, including CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., may furnish goods and services, other than order execution, to the Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisors when they process trades through them (referred to in the industry as “soft-dollar” arrangements). These goods and services are paid for with a portion of the brokerage commissions and assist the Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisor with investment decision-making services for the Fund or relate directly to the execution of portfolio transactions on behalf of the Fund. As per the terms of the portfolio sub-advisory agreements, such soft dollar arrangements are in compliance with applicable laws.

In addition, the Manager may enter into commission recapture arrangements with certain dealers with respect to the Fund. Any commission recaptured will be paid to the Fund.

During the period, the Fund did not pay any brokerage commissions or other fees to CIBC WM or CIBC World Markets Corp. Spreads associated with fixed income and other securities are not ascertainable and, for that reason, cannot be included when determining these amounts.

Fund Transactions

The Fund may enter into one or more of the following transactions (the Related Party Transactions) in reliance on the standing instructions issued by the IRC:

- invest in or hold equity securities of CIBC or issuers related to a portfolio sub-advisor;
- invest in or hold non-exchange-traded debt securities of CIBC or an issuer related to CIBC, with terms-to-maturity of 365 days or more, issued in a primary offering and in the secondary market;
- make an investment in the securities of an issuer for which CIBC WM, CIBC World Markets Corp., or any affiliate of CIBC (a Related Dealer) acts as an underwriter during the offering of the securities or at any time during the 60-day period following the completion of the offering of such securities (in the case of a “private placement” offering, in accordance with the exemptive relief order granted by the Canadian securities regulatory authorities and in accordance with the policies and procedures relating to such investment);
- purchase equity and debt securities from or sell them to a Related Dealer, where it is acting as principal;
- undertake currency and currency derivative transactions where a Related Dealer is the counterparty;
- purchase securities from or sell securities to another investment fund or a managed account managed by the Manager or an affiliate of the Manager; and

- engage in in-specie transfers by receiving portfolio securities from, or delivering portfolio securities to, a managed account or another investment fund managed by the Manager or an affiliate, in respect of a purchase or redemption of units of the Fund, subject to certain conditions.

At least annually, the IRC reviews the Related Party Transactions for which they have issued standing instructions. The IRC is required to advise the Canadian securities regulatory authorities, after a matter has been referred to or reported to it by the Manager, if it determines that an investment decision was not made in accordance with conditions imposed by securities legislation or the IRC in any Related Party Transactions requiring its approval.

Custodian

CIBC Mellon Trust Company is the custodian of the Fund (the Custodian). The Custodian holds all cash and securities for the Fund and ensures that those assets are kept separate from any other cash or securities that the custodian might be holding. The Custodian also provides other services to the Fund including record-keeping and processing of foreign exchange transactions. The fees and spreads for services of the Custodian directly related to the execution of portfolio transactions by the Fund are paid by CAMI and/or dealer(s) directed by CAMI, up to the amount of the credits generated under soft dollar arrangements from trading on behalf of the Fund during that month. All other fees and spreads for the services of the Custodian are paid by the Manager and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis. CIBC owns a 50% interest in the Custodian.

Service Provider

CIBC Mellon Global Securities Services Company (CIBC GSS) provides certain services to the Fund, including securities lending, fund accounting and reporting, and portfolio valuation. Such servicing fees are paid by the Manager and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis. CIBC indirectly owns a 50% interest in CIBC GSS.

⁴ This information is presented as at August 31 of the period(s) shown.

⁶ The decision to waive and/or absorb management fees and operating expenses is at the discretion of the Manager. The practice of waiving and/or absorbing management fees and operating expenses may continue indefinitely or may be terminated at any time without notice to unitholders.

There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

Management Fees

The Fund pays CAMI an annual management fee to cover the costs of managing the Fund. Management fees are based on the Fund's net asset value and are calculated daily and paid monthly. Management fees are paid to CAMI in consideration for providing, or arranging for the provision of, management, distribution, and portfolio advisory services. Advertising and promotional expenses, office overhead expenses, trailing commissions, and the fees of the portfolio sub-advisor are paid by CAMI out of the management fees received from the Fund. The Fund is required to pay applicable taxes on the management fees paid to CAMI. Refer to the simplified prospectus for the annual management fee rate for each class of units.

For Class O units, the management fee is negotiated with and paid by, or as directed by, unitholders or dealers and discretionary managers on behalf of unitholders. Such Class O management fee will not exceed the Class F unit management fee rate.

The following table shows a breakdown of the services received in consideration of the management fees, as a percentage of the management fees collected from the Fund for the period ended August 31, 2020. These amounts do not include waived fees or absorbed expenses.

Past Performance

The performance data provided assumes reinvestment of distributions only and does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, or other optional charges payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how a fund will perform in the future.

The Fund's returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses, and the difference in returns between classes of units is primarily due to differences in the management expense ratio. See Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratio.

Year-by-Year Returns

These bar charts show the annual performance of each class of units of the Fund for each of the periods shown, and illustrate how the performance has changed from period to period. These bar charts show, in percentage terms, how an investment made on September 1 would have increased or decreased by August 31, unless otherwise indicated.

A note on forward-looking statements

The management report of fund performance may contain forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, that depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or that include words such as “expects”, “anticipates”, “intends”, “plans”, “believes”, “estimates”, or other similar wording. In addition, any statements that may be made concerning future performance, strategies, or prospects and possible future actions taken by the fund, are also forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors that may cause the actual results and achievements of the fund to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to: general economic, market, and business conditions; fluctuations in securities prices, interest rates, and foreign currency exchange rates; changes in government regulations; and catastrophic events.

The above list of important factors that may affect future results is not exhaustive. Before making any investment decisions, we encourage you to consider these and other factors carefully. CIBC Asset Management Inc. does not undertake, and specifically disclaims, any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments, or otherwise prior to the release of the next management report of fund performance.
