Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Results of Operations

Renaissance International Equity Currency Neutral Fund's (referred to as the Fund) portfolio advisor is CIBC Asset Management Inc. (referred to as CAMI, the Manager, or the Portfolio Advisor). The Fund primarily invests in units of Renaissance International Equity Fund (referred to as the Underlying Fund).

The Fund attempts to reduce its currency exposure to non-Canadian dollar currencies by implementing a currency hedging strategy that is aimed at protecting the Fund from non-Canadian dollar currency fluctuations in respect of units it owns in the Underlying Fund. The Fund may not be able to hedge its currency exposure fully and therefore could be subject to some foreign currency exposure.

The Underlying Fund's portfolio Sub-Advisor is Walter Scott & Partners Limited (referred to as the Sub-Advisor). The commentary that follows provides a summary of the results of operations for the six-month period ended February 28, 2022. All dollar figures are expressed in thousands, unless otherwise indicated.

The Fund's net asset value decreased by 12% during the period, from $45,893 as at August 31, 2021 to $40,563 as at February 28, 2022. Net redemptions of $557 and negative investment performance resulted in an overall decrease in net asset value.

Class A units of the Fund posted a return of -10.7% for the period. The Fund's benchmark, the MSCI EAFE Index (local currency) (referred to as the benchmark), returned -3.2% for the same period. The Fund's return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, unlike the benchmark's return. See Past Performance for the returns of other classes of units offered by the Fund.

Over the period, economies continued to recover, albeit unevenly, from the pandemic downturn, with company earnings showing a vigorous rebound. However, in the latter part of 2021, equities were negatively affected by concerns over the emergence of the COVID-19 Omicron variant and its impact on economic growth and supply chains. Investor nerves were also tested by the tilt toward monetary tightening by the U.S. Federal Reserve Board in view of rising inflation. The prospect of higher interest rates against a backdrop of rising inflation and global political tensions got 2022 off to a bad start in equity markets.

Valuations were lowered in several equity-market sectors. Mounting Russian threats to the sovereignty of Ukraine developed into a full-blown invasion, which exacerbated concerns about growth and inflation amid surging oil prices.

Stock selection in Japan and Europe (excluding the U.K.) detracted from the Underlying Fund's performance, as did stock selection in the industrials sector. Individual detractors from performance included overweight allocations to Makita Corp., Adidas AG and Kone OYJ. Makita experienced higher input inflation, mainly as a result of increased transportation costs. A slowdown in growth from elevated levels was inevitable, although demand still remains reasonably healthy. Supply-chain issues and demand weakness in Asian markets led to a challenging year for Adidas, but its outlook for 2022 is more encouraging. Supply-chain pressures plaguing the industry are beginning to abate, and the company's management commentary regarding 2022 prospects suggests revenue growth at least in line with a long-term target of 8% to 10%. The inflationary cost environment started to impact Kone's earnings in the second half of 2021 and led to weaker-than-expected operating margin forecasts for 2022.

A slight underweight exposure to the weak communication services sector was a contributor to the Underlying Fund's performance. Stock selection in the consumer staples sector contributed to performance as well, largely owing to the Underlying Fund's holding in Diageo PLC. Individual contributors to the Underlying Fund's performance included overweight holdings in Compass Group PLC, Jardine Matheson Holdings Ltd. and Novo Nordisk AS. Compass Group continued to recover from the lows of early 2020 and the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic. Revenues recovered to roughly 97% of pre-pandemic levels, with four of its five business lines now above those of 2019. Jardine Matheson Holdings has recovered from the effects of the pandemic in Asia, as evidenced by results for 2021 which showed higher underlying earnings per share than the previous two years. Novo Nordisk reported good growth across all its key businesses. In 2021, overall sales and operating profit grew by 14% and 13%, respectively, on a constant-currency basis.

The Sub-Advisor initiated a new holding in Prudential PLC, a pan-Asian life insurance business. Powerful, long-term, structural trends support the growth of this industry, with the continent's large middle-class population expanding, becoming wealthier and growing older. Coupled with relatively low levels of government spending on public health and welfare services, the result is growing demand for insurance protection.

An existing holding in SGS SA, a leading independent testing company, was increased. The growth of its business is underpinned by the proliferation of regulation globally that requires testing and inspection to demonstrate compliance. In this environment, outsourcing of testing to an independent third party is often necessary and nearly always lowers costs. In addition to benefitting from these industry trends, the company continues to consolidate what is a highly fragmented industry, capitalizing on the scale of its market-leading position. The company has a robust capital structure with high levels of profitability.

Galp Energia SGPS SA was eliminated from the Underlying Fund amid continued pandemic-related challenges and the group's sustainability credentials being subject to ongoing market scepticism. The Sub-Advisor sold Hong Kong & China Gas Co. Ltd. at a time when the company is significantly increasing investment in several adjacent areas with limited visibility over the financial returns achievable. A holding in Reckitt Benckiser Group PLC was eliminated from the Underlying Fund after its acquisition of Mead Johnson Nutrition Co.

Recent Developments

The escalating conflict between Ukraine and the Russian Federation has resulted in significant volatility and uncertainty in financial markets. It is unclear what further actions may be taken by governments and the resulting impact on global economies, businesses, financial markets, and the Fund's performance. While the situation remains fluid, the Fund continues to monitor ongoing developments and the impact to investment strategies.

Effective January 1, 2022, the annual management fees were reduced from 1.95% to 1.90% for Class A units and from 0.85% to 0.80% for Class F units of the Fund.

Effective September 1, 2021, CAMI, as Manager, pays the Fund's operating expenses, other than certain expenses, in exchange for the payment by the Fund of a fixed administration fee. This fee applies to all of the Fund's classes, other than Class O, and is equal to a specified percentage of the net asset value of each class of the Fund.

The COVID-19 pandemic and the restrictions imposed by governments around the world to limit its spread have disrupted the global economy and financial markets in unprecedented and unpredictable ways. The COVID-19 outbreak may adversely affect the performance of the Fund.

Related Party Transactions

Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce (referred to as CIBC) and its affiliates have the following roles and responsibilities with respect to the Fund, and receive the fees described below in connection with their roles and responsibilities.

Manager, Trustee, and Portfolio Advisor of the Fund

CAMI, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CIBC, is the Fund's Manager, Trustee, and Portfolio Advisor. As Manager, CAMI receives management fees with respect to the Fund's day-to-day business and operations, calculated based on the net asset value of each respective class of units of the Fund as described in Management Fees.

As Trustee, CAMI holds title to the Fund's property (cash and securities) on behalf of its unitholders. As Portfolio Advisor, CAMI provides, or arranges to provide for, investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund. CAMI also compensates dealers in connection with their marketing activities regarding the Fund. From time to time, CAMI may invest in units of the Fund.

Distributor

Dealers and other firms sell units of the Fund to investors. These dealers and other firms include CAMI's related dealers such as the CIBC Investor's Edge discount brokerage division of CIBC Investor Services Inc. (referred to as CIBC ISI), the CIBC Imperial Service division of CIBC ISI, and the CIBC Wood Gundy division of CIBC World Markets Inc. (referred to as CIBC WM). CIBC ISI and CIBC WM are wholly-owned subsidiaries of CIBC.

CAMI may pay sales commissions and trailing commissions to these dealers and firms in connection with the sale of units of the Fund. These dealers and other firms may pay a portion of these sales commissions and trailing commissions to their advisors who sell units of the Fund to investors.

Brokerage Arrangements and Soft Dollars

The Portfolio Advisor makes decisions, including the selection of markets and dealers and the negotiation of commissions, with respect to the purchase and sale of portfolio securities, certain derivative products and the execution of portfolio transactions. Brokerage business may be allocated by the Portfolio Advisor to CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., each a subsidiary of CIBC. CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp. may also earn spreads on the sale of fixed income securities, other securities, and certain derivative products to the Fund. A spread is the difference between the bid and ask prices for a security in the applicable marketplace, with respect to the execution of portfolio transactions. The spread will differ based upon various factors such as the nature and liquidity of the security.

Dealers, including CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., may furnish goods and services, other than order execution, when CAMI processes trades through them (referred to in the industry as "soft-dollar" arrangements). These goods and services are paid for with a portion of brokerage commissions and assist CAMI with investment decision-making services for the Fund or relate directly to the execution of portfolio transactions on behalf of the Fund.

The fees and spreads for services of the Custodian directly related to the execution of portfolio transactions by the Fund are paid by CAMI and/or dealer(s) directed by CAMI, up to the amount of the credits generated under soft dollar arrangements from trading on behalf of the Fund during that month.

In addition, the Manager may enter into commission recapture arrangements with certain dealers with respect to the Fund. Any commission recaptured will be paid to the Fund.

During the period, the Fund did not pay any brokerage commissions or other fees to CIBC WM or CIBC World Markets Corp. Spreads associated with fixed income and other securities are not ascertainable and, for that reason, cannot be included when determining these amounts.

Fund Transactions

The Fund may enter into one or more of the following transactions (referred to as the Related Party Transactions) in reliance on the standing instructions issued by the Independent Review Committee (referred to as the IRC):

- invest in or hold equity securities of CIBC or issuers related to a portfolio sub-advisor;
- invest in or hold non-exchange-traded debt securities of CIBC or an issuer related to CIBC, with terms-to-maturity of 365 days or more, issued in a primary offering and in the secondary market;
- make an investment in the securities of an issuer for which CIBC WM, CIBC World Markets Corp., or any affiliate of CIBC (referred to as a Related Dealer or the Related Dealers) acts as an underwriter during the offering of the securities or at any time during the 60-day period following the completion of the offering of such securities (in the case of a "private placement" offering, in accordance with the Private Placement Relief Order and the policies and procedures relating to such investment);
- purchase equity or debt securities from, or sell them to, a Related Dealer, where it is acting as principal;
- undertake currency and currency derivative transactions where a related party is the counterparty;
- purchase securities from or sell securities to another investment fund or a managed account managed by the Manager or an affiliate (referred to as inter-fund trades or cross-trades); and
- engage in in-specie transfers by receiving portfolio securities from, or delivering portfolio securities to, a managed account or another investment fund managed by the Manager or an affiliate, in respect of a purchase or redemption of units of the Fund, subject to certain conditions.

At least annually, the IRC reviews the Related Party Transactions for which they have issued standing instructions. The IRC is required to advise the Canadian securities regulatory authorities, after a matter has been referred to or reported to it by the Manager, if it determines that an investment decision was not made in accordance with conditions imposed by securities legislation or the IRC in any Related Party Transactions requiring its approval.

Custodian

CIBC Mellon Trust Company is the custodian of the Fund (referred to as the Custodian). The Custodian holds all cash and securities for the Fund and ensures that those assets are kept separate from any other cash or securities that the custodian might be holding. The Custodian also provides other services to the Fund including record-keeping and processing of foreign exchange transactions. The fees and spreads for services of the Custodian directly related to the execution of portfolio transactions by the Fund are paid by CAMI and/or dealer(s) directed by CAMI, up to the amount of the credits generated under soft dollar arrangements from trading on behalf of the Fund during that month. All other fees and spreads for the services of the Custodian are paid by the Manager. CIBC owns a 50% interest in the Custodian.

Service Provider

CIBC Mellon Global Securities Services Company (referred to as CIBC GSS) provides certain services to the Fund, including securities lending, fund accounting and reporting, and portfolio valuation. Such servicing fees are paid by the Manager. CIBC indirectly owns a 50% interest in CIBC GSS.

⁴ This information is presented as at February 28, 2022 and August 31 of the period(s) shown.

⁶ The decision to waive and/or absorb management fees and operating expenses is at the discretion of the Manager. The practice of waiving and/or absorbing management fees and operating expenses may continue indefinitely or may be terminated at any time without notice to unitholders.

⁸ The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the portfolio advisor and/or portfolio sub-advisor manages the portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to a fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by a fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

Management Fees

The Fund pays CAMI an annual management fee to cover the costs of managing the Fund. Management fees are based on the Fund's net asset value and are calculated daily and paid monthly. Management fees are paid to CAMI in consideration for providing, or arranging for the provision of, management, distribution, and portfolio advisory services. Advertising and promotional expenses, office overhead expenses related to the Manager's activities, and trailing commissions are paid by CAMI out of the management fees received from the Fund. The Fund is required to pay applicable taxes on the management fees paid to CAMI. Refer to the simplified prospectus for the annual management fee rate for each class of units.

For Class O units, the management fee is negotiated with and paid by, or as directed by, unitholders or dealers and discretionary managers on behalf of unitholders. Such Class O management fee will not exceed the Class F unit management fee rate.

The following table shows a breakdown of the services received in consideration of the management fees, as a percentage of the management fees collected from the Fund for the period ended February 28, 2022. These amounts do not include waived fees or absorbed expenses.

	Class A Units	Class F Units
Sales and trailing commissions paid to dealers	47.63%	0.00%
General administration, investment advice, and profit	52.37%	100.00%

Past Performance

The performance data provided assumes reinvestment of distributions only and does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, or other optional charges payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how a fund will perform in the future.

The Fund's returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses, and the difference in returns between classes of units is primarily due to differences in the management expense ratio. See Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratio.

Year-by-Year Returns

A note on forward-looking statements

The management report of fund performance may contain forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, that depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or that include words such as “expects”, “anticipates”, “intends”, “plans”, “believes”, “estimates”, or other similar wording. In addition, any statements that may be made concerning future performance, strategies, or prospects and possible future actions taken by the fund, are also forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors that may cause the actual results and achievements of the fund to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to: general economic, market, and business conditions; fluctuations in securities prices, interest rates, and foreign currency exchange rates; changes in government regulations; and catastrophic events.

The above list of important factors that may affect future results is not exhaustive. Before making any investment decisions, we encourage you to consider these and other factors carefully. CIBC Asset Management Inc. does not undertake, and specifically disclaims, any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments, or otherwise prior to the release of the next management report of fund performance.
